

THE STORY EMPORIUM

It's so much more than a children's bookstore!

The Story Emporium is a working art studio for children's author and illustrator Erin T. Whalen. Her illustrations can be purchased in the form of altered art jewelry, t-shirts, prints, originals, books, and painted book bags.

On Wednesdays, we have a visiting author and/or illustrator that will be interviewed for a local television station and web show! Each week one classroom from a local school will be invited to take part in the interview. At the end of the interview, all of the attending children will receive a free autographed book from the author. The visiting author's books will be for sale even after they have gone and because they are an active member of our website www.thestoryemporium.org you can email and interact with him or her.

When we don't have a special author/illustrator guest children can come to story time with our resident storyteller – Miss. Elaineous for story times during the week and watch our resident children's author and illustrator at work on her latest book.
